Special Events

Clara Yang, Piano, Sunmi Chang, Violin
Sunday, April 11, 4:00 p.m.—Channel 1341

These two artists have put together a program of music by American composers and also some of your favorites—Chopin and Debussy. Praised by Fanfare as a “first-rate pianist who isn’t afraid of challenges”, Clara Yang is Associate Professor of Music and Head of Keyboard Studies at UNC-Chapel Hill. Besides performing the traditional repertoire, Dr. Yang is also an avid contemporary and new music interpreter, and the program includes a piece written for her. Her partner, Sunmi Chang, has performed widely and to acclaim throughout North America and Europe as a solo artist and chamber musician. She has been a tenured member of the St.

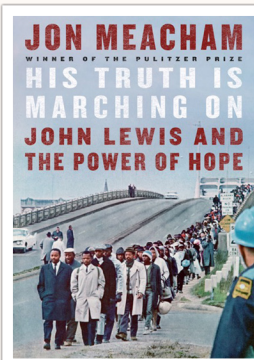

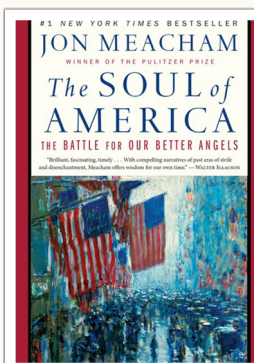

Paul Chamber Orchestra, the only full-time orchestra in the US, and continues to perform and teach violin students of all ages. We welcome them to Galloway Ridge in this virtual performance.

Jon Meacham, Rogers Chair in American Presidency at Vanderbilt University

The Soul of America: Lessons for a Fractured Age
Sunday, April 18, 4:00 p.m.—Channel 1341

We are privileged to have Jon Meacham, writer, editor, reviewer, historian and presidential biographer, present a virtual program for Galloway Ridge residents thanks largely to resident, Sam Williamson, who served as President of Sewanee: The University of the South, when Meacham graduated in 1991. In 2009 he won the Pulitzer Prize for his book American Lion: Andrew Jackson in the White House. In recent years he published a series of well-received books including two on the New York Times Bestseller List. One, The Soul of America: The Battle for Our Better Angels, addresses critical times in American history when hope overcame division and fear. A second, his publication titled His Truth Is Marching On: John Lewis and the Power of Hope, is an intimate and revealing portrait of the civil rights icon. Meacham, a frequent guest on major television news programs, spoke at the 2020 Democratic National Convention on The Soul of America. It is also the title he has chosen for his presentation at our upcoming Sunday event.
